Player of the year would be Grumpy with IM second. Grumpy gives his all at every event (always positive), quick to help in any situation and fun to play with. Have played with a lot of rookies this year and enjoyed them all.

Playing wise I think of guys like Xtour and Blue but you also have guys like Pommie and Enigma who like to have a good time. 1st-Xtour,scd -Blue. Nobody stands out as a fashion statement although Chilly did try so he would get my vote.

1. Blue - He is a good golfer and he is probably the nicest guy anyone could ever play golf with. 2. Tickler - He is also a good golfer and a very good guy to play with. I played with him in my first event and he made me feel really welcome. 3. Cuba - Another good golfer who is a pleasure to play with and who is also a very generous person.

Gotta go with the Maiden, again! Her passion for playing, competing, and having fun, in my opinion, are unsurpassed by anyone. She exemplifies what the Tour, and this recognition, stand for: Sportsmanship - awesome in winning and in losing; Attendance - 67 events and counting (3rd); Points - 215 and counting (3rd); Ranking - often hovering in the top 20; Winning Percentage - 55% good rank often brings tough opponents; Team performance - Commish's Cup, 10 of 14 pts plus a goody bag; After-game participation (volume of beer is not a key issue) - Always one of the last to leave; Always engaging and making Slammers laugh; General contributions to the success of the Tour - Always nice to read her OC reports, always trying to think of ways to make the Tour more enjoyable for everyone.

1. Chef - mainly for his sterling play; but also because he sticks around and gives good conversation afterwards. 2. Cuba - also for his good play, nice temperament, and neat prizes donated. 3. Chilly - good play and wonderful event

About Our Sponsors

Bill "Billiards" Ryan and his lovely wife, Carole, graciously supplied The Tour with the Preston Cup.

About The Cup

The Preston Cup was named after the Ryan family's dog, Preston. While he wasn't the best-looking, nor the best-smelling nor was he the friendliest dog around, he was fun and tremendously personable... and those are the traits of the Slammer of the Year.

Remember, the Slammer of the Year is voted on by your peers, so work your magic and make some allies.

summaries.

1. Bookie - an enthusiastic Slammer (seems like whenever I'm out he's there too... also to acknowledge his excellent job doing the weekly summaries which have obviously been a big hit (with a writing style to rival Damon Runyon... ) competitive and sportsmanlike (especially during the and after the Super Sr championship); 2. ZenGirl - always a pleasure to see her at an ST event... a dedicated competitor and a real sportsman (sportsperson?) made a very respectable showing at the Citizen amateur; 3. ProZee - a good OC - clear and steady - seems to work hard at improving his game and this year w some great results..perhaps not a lot of quotables from this guy but good results.

KaDaver is my first pick, bookie my second, and my third is zengirl. all three are a pleasure to play with. bookie has shown great improvement this year. the dead mans qualities speak for themselves.

Malone (Ramoan has game and "the look". And he is competitive.

Chef (He can get in your kitchen, cook your lunch and eat it ... The consummate pro golfer and gourmet)

Fuzzy (Has a certain way about him. His $5 is always my favorite)

Gold – Iron Maiden... this heart of the tour, not only exemplifies every good thing about the tour; she also knows how to play match golf. From her strategic challenges through to her after match words, she is ambassador extraordinaire! Did you know that she is the one that made a recommendation (that was unanimously accepted) that the OCs donate an award? She golfs like Alfie plays hockey, not letting an injury get her down. Last year when I voted for her, I said that her picture is in the dictionary, beside Preston cup.

Silver – Cuba... Even if he didn't donate all of those prizes for the three stars. He is among the leaders in so many categories, and I have spent many hours with him, and can assure you that he complains less than any other Slammer. He has never denied anything that the Tour has thrown at him, plays the tees, he is told to, plays the divisions, that he is told to as well. Now if we can just get him to register his handicap (but did you know that he even has a good reason not to).

Bronze – KidsClub... Does any OC put as much work on introducing the golfers as KC does. Not only does he find out more about the Slammers, but he is great at informing the rest of us, about those findings. Challenges all Slammers to learn rules by quizzing often, and opening debates. I only wish that I played in 2007, when he was the Preston Cup winner. He must have been MORE awesome as this is the only year that he ever received a vote?

HM – KaDaver... nobody has better shown us how to be a sport. Leads the tour in smiles!

Sutty, IronMaiden, Stevie Ray... competitive, hold their own with quotables, positive attitudes (usually), good attendance, etc.

#1: KaDaver: With 55 events under his belt so far this 2K10 season, KaDaver is just a great sportsman and a fun competitor. He always stays around to hang at the 19th hole. Taking down Chef was a huge success story and he tried more than anyone else to reach the summit losing 5 matches to Chef before he was able to complete the task! He's 2nd in points, top 3 in the birdie, doggie and skins race, is second in earnings...and has a 68.7% win ratio! The choice is a no brainer, KaDaver deserves the honour of Slammer of the year!
 #2: Cuba: Cuba is such a great Slammer on and off the course! He's in the top 10 in all categories and always brings 3 star prizes....sometimes for events he's not even playing in!
 #3: Grumpy: Grumpy always gives his best and has made great strides with his game.....Grumpy also always has the best interest of the tour in mind and in his heart.....and has more quotables provided and recorded than just about anyone.

1 – Grumpy (He is the man!); 2 – IronMaiden (She is the WOMAN!); 3 – Ruiz (What a sport!)
